re: Mel and Lerah Parker

Dear Mr. Cohen:

On February 16, 2001 I forwarded to you by Federal Express the executed reimbursement agreement and affidavit of Mel and Lerah Parker. I have been away from my office for the entire past week and was unable to meet you by telephone. I attempted to call you today, but you were apparently unavailable.

Since you did not provide affidavits for Mr. and Mrs. Parker to sign, the affidavits I had them sign were my best "stab" at providing the information you required.

Please call me as soon as possible if there is some problem with the reimbursement agreement or the affidavits. We are meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Parker today and would like to make sure that the documents we have signed are satisfactory before they return to Libby. If the documents need to be amended in any way, that can be easily accomplished while they are here. I therefore request that you call me at my associated counsel's office, Thueson & Lamb, in Helena, Montana, 406-442-8848.

Thank you.

Yours very truly,

Tom Lewis
